You or your guardian must notify the Church if you would like a priest to visit, bring Holy Communion, or administer the Sacraments. Please do not assume that the parish has been informed. Your call ensures that we can provide the spiritual care and support you need during times of illness.

29th Sunday In Ordinary Time A Family Perspective by Bud Ozar:
Jesus was exasperated when he scolded: "Why do you put me to the test?" It is natural for children to test parents; this is how they learn and how we teach limits, rules and values. Be like Jesus in today's gospel; He was firm, honest and direct.

Stewardship Reflection October 18th- The 29th Sunday Of Ordinary Time
Today's readings encourage us Christian stewards to always be mindful of who we are and Whose we are in every aspect of our lives. Our First Reading, from Isaiah, takes us back to the very foundation of our faith. The prophet, serving as the "voice" of God, proclaims, "I am the Lord and there is no other, there is no God besides me." This is a powerful reminder of a fundamental truth. But it is easy to lose sight of this truth in our fast-paced, stressed-out, digital world. As disciples of Christ, we must make intentional choices each day as to how we spend our Time, Talents and Treasure so that each of these aspects of our lives proclaim that we indeed serve God and God alone. Let us joyfully give thanks to this wonderful God by the way we live our daily lives. We belong to Him and there is no other.

"Hold back nothing of yourselves for yourselves, so that He who gives Himself totally to you may receive you totally." -St. Francis of Assisi

What is Anointing of the Sick? Why is it important?
Anointing of the Sick is for Catholics who are sick or facing life-threatening situations (like major surgery or a serious medical emergency), as well as those who may be facing imminent death. Unfortunately many Catholics wait until it's too late to call the priest because they simply do not understand the vital importance of this sacrament or they don't want to bother the priest because they think he is too busy.

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient. The Sacrament may be repeated if the sick person recovers after the anointing but becomes ill once again, or if, during the same illness, the person's condition becomes more serious. A person should be anointed before surgery when a dangerous illness is the reason for the intervention (cf. Rite of Anointing, Introduction, nos. 8-10).

Moreover, "old people may be anointed if they are in weak condition even though no dangerous illness is present. Sick children may be anointed if they have sufficient use of reason to be comforted by this sacrament. . . . [The faithful] should be encouraged to ask for the anointing, and, as soon as the time for the anointing comes, to receive it with faith and devotion, not misusing the sacrament by putting it off" (Rite of Anointing, nos. 11, 12, 13).

Only bishops and priests may be ministers of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. A penitential rite followed by the Liturgy of the Word opens the celebration. Scripture awakens the faith of the sick and family members and friends to pray to Christ for the strength of his Holy Spirit. The priest lays his hands on the head of the sick person. He then proceeds to anoint, with the blessed Oil of the Sick, the forehead and hands of the sick person (in the Roman Rite). He accompanies these acts with the words "Through this holy anointing may the Lord in his love and mercy help you with the grace of the Holy Spirit. May the Lord who frees you from sin save you and raise you up" (CCC, no. 1513).

For those who are about to depart from this life, the Church offers the person Penance, Anointing of the Sick, and the Eucharist as Viaticum (food for the journey) given at the end of life. These are "the sacraments that prepare for our heavenly homeland" (cf. CCC, no. 1525). These rites are highly valued by Catholics as powerful aids to a good death. Since Holy Communion is the effective sign of Christ's Paschal Mystery, it becomes for the recipient the opportunity to unite one's own suffering and dying to that of Christ with the hope of life eternal with him. The special words proper to Viaticum are added: "May the Lord Jesus protect you and lead you to everlasting life. Amen."

What are the effects of this Sacrament?
This sacrament confers a special grace which unites the sick person more intimately to the Passion of Christ for his good and for the good of all the Church. It gives comfort, peace, courage, and even the forgiveness of sins if the sick person is not able to make a confession. Sometimes, if it is the will of God, this sacrament even brings about the restoration of physical health. In any case this Anointing prepares the sick person for the journey to the Father's House.

How does one get a priest to offer Anointing of the Sick?
Every parish has a phone number to use to contact the priest in case of emergency. The sacramental emergency number for our parish is 724-272-5474 and is printed on the front our weekly bulletin. Or simply call the parish office at (814) 733-2210 to let the priest know of your need. If you should have to leave a message it is very helpful to include information including a way to contact you, the name of the sick person, the location, and the state of health (kind of illness, possible closeness of death, ability to speak, etc.). Please remember a priest cannot anoint you or a loved one unless it is communicated and he is asked to do so. A priest is never too busy for the Anointing of the Sick.
